Vasey RSL Care supports the accommodation needs of the ex-service community with nearly 300 studio, 1-bedroom and 2-bedroom rental units.

Affordable

The units are offered at rents that are substantially lower than comparable private rentals in the same areas, and offer greater security of tenure.

The units are well maintained, with Vasey RSL Care taking care of building maintenance and looking after shared areas and grounds.

Community Environment

Residents are as independent or as social as they like. The common experiences they have shared create a sense of camaraderie, support and a respect for traditional values. Frankston South, Cheltenham, Croydon and Geelong have a community hall with library and kitchen facilities for events and activities for residents.

Eligibility

Units are open to people of any age who:

- Served in the Australian or Allied Forces, and/or
- Widows/widowers of Australian/Allied Force members
- And their current dependants (eg partner/carer or dependant children)

Priority is given to those in greatest need.
